Forecast for today: Fair weather, clearing this evening, colder.

BRIEF AND BREEZY.

There was no mention of the probate court yesterday.

A. Auerbach & Bro. yesterday presented to the court their employees with a Christmas check.

Judge J. E. Dunning, of Kanab, Kane county, has returned from a mission to the southern states.

A meeting of the Jefferson Drum corps will be held at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening.

The Seane Glass and Paint company re-remembered their employees in their usual manner with a silver for Christmas.

Secretary Richards came down yesterday for a short time returning to Ogden in the evening to eat Christmas dinner.

The National Gas company paid all their employees yesterday in order that the boys might be provided with Christmas money.

The Irish-American society will not hold their annual event. The next meeting will be held on January 1, at the society's hall.

The clearings of the associated banks yesterday were $1,000,000. There was no comparison with the same day last year, that being Christmas.

At 6 a. m. yesterday, the thermometer registered 25, and at 6 p. m. it was 25, the maximum temperature being 25 and the minimum 25.

Accommodations were yesterday sent to P. Campbell, from the company of Brigham City, sufficient to equip the company on a basis of fifty-three men.

Christmas trees were at a premium yesterday, the few on hand being sold at very high prices. At 5 o'clock the supply was entirely exhausted.

Charles H. Menter and Anna Christiansen were yesterday married by United States Commissioner Greenman at his office in the Washburn block.

The local sharpshooters are anticipating a day of great enjoyment in the shooting range at Fort Douglas, commencing at 10 o'clock this morning.

The tenants of the Commercial block yesterday made up their usual handsome Christmas surplus for the employees of the building. It is an annual custom.

Lieutenant Bryant S. Wells is visiting his Salt Lake relatives. He has secured a seven day's leave of absence from his regiment, which is stationed at Fort Omaha.

Solomon Herman Bamberger will be at the north entrance of the city and county building at 10:30 this morning to receive and disburse any contributions for the needy.

Thanks to the liberality of Manager Wallace, of the American Bleed and Print company, the usual Christmas surplus for their numerous employees today. May his shadow never grow less.

Next Friday the election of officers in all the courts of the Ancient Order of Foresters in this jurisdiction will take place. The boys of the Salt Lake will have a joint installation of the new officers at the I. O. O. F. hall at some date yet to be fixed.

L. A. Dittman was the recipient of a handsome present from his employees, last night, in the shape of a handsome combination knife, which was presented to him by the employees of the Salt Lake Shingle building. The jewel is of genuine tiger's claw, and Mr. Dittman is especially proud of it.

The editorial staff acknowledges the reasonable compliment of a paper of "age-dog and a box of fine Havanas from James H. Hinton, of the Continental Market. The quality of both was excellent, and the compliment was in keeping with the reputation of the Continental bar.

The county court met yesterday morning at 10 o'clock and immediately adjourned until Thursday morning out of respect to Sebastian Cabot, whose family is overcome with grief at the death of their infant son. The last sad rites were performed yesterday.

At a recent given last week by the students of the School of Music of the University of Michigan, John J. McMillan, of Payson, Utah, presented a part, his selection being Schubert's "Erlösung," rendered from memory. The performance of the Utah musician is spoken of as a most finished one.

Abstracts furnished, titles insured and 8 per cent paid on deposits by Utah Title Insurance and Trust company, 160 Main street.

INJUNCTION GRANTED IN THE SUIT.

Utah Steam Laundry Sold Under Execution. J. P. Undergraff, one of the Partners, Sued For the Return of $3,500 Put into the Company By Charles Foreman—The Ryan and Ream Cattle Company's Affairs—Judgments Entered and Miscellaneous Matters.

As forementioned in The Herald of yesterday, Attorney John M. Zane made application before Chief Justice Merritt yesterday morning for a reduction in the bonds of Charles Valentine. Mr. Zane gave notice that he had retired from the case in so far as Mr. Mulvaney was concerned and represented Valentine alone. Attorney F. B. Stephens was entered as counsel for the fair Sadie.

Mr. Zane asked that Valentine's bond be reduced from $10,000 on the grand larceny charge and $3,500 on the indictment for adultery to $1,500 in each case. Counsel said it was true that the amount alleged to have been stolen was large; at the same time, he took it that in fixing the amount of bail, the ability of the parties concerned to give it had to be taken into consideration. It might be as difficult for one person to give $1,500 as for another to furnish $10,000 or more. What-over bond was necessary to insure the holding of the defendants was the proper one under the circumstances.

Judge Merritt said that inasmuch as this case had previously gone before Judge Baruch, he would not take the same Judge dealt with the present application. Attorney Zane understood that the previous action of Judge Baruch was not a final one. There was no comparison with the same day last year, that being Christmas.

At 6 a. m. yesterday, the thermometer registered 25, and at 6 p. m. it was 25, the maximum temperature being 25 and the minimum 25.
